6. Discussion Items

1. Good Beginnings Workshop with California School Boards Association Consultant

The Redwood City School District Governance Team will participate in the Good Beginnings Workshop, a professional development session designed to foster trust and enhance governance team effectiveness. The workshop will focus on building stronger relationships through understanding roles, responsibilities, and the four elements of teamwork: collaboration, communication, commitment, and celebration. This session is especially valuable for onboarding new Board members and strengthening team cohesion.

No financial impact to the district.

2. Planning Discussion for the 2025–26 School Year

This meeting will focus on reviewing priorities and initiating planning for the 2025–26 school year, with an emphasis on academic excellence, equity, and whole-child support.

The focus of this meeting is to review priorities and begin preparations for the 2025–26 school year.

The Redwood City School District (RCSD) remains committed to fostering academic excellence, equity, and whole-child support. This meeting provides an opportunity for RCSD leadership to reflect on current initiatives, evaluate progress, and make adjustments to meet evolving student and community needs.

District planning efforts will include a review of relevant data and also the manner of interpreting data, and budget development. The session will cover key operational areas such as academic priorities, instructional initiatives, and alignment with LCAP goals.

No financial impact to the district at this time.

John R. Baker, Superintendent
