11. Discussion Items

1. Discussion of Parcel Tax Survey Findings and Recommended Next Steps

In light of the expiration of one-time COVID relief funds and continued fiscal pressures, the Board has been evaluating the feasibility of placing a parcel tax measure on the June 2026 ballot to sustain key services and programs.

Superintendent Baker introduced the item and provided background regarding the district's funding challenges.

Jeremy Hauser, TeamCivX, and Bryan Godbe, Godbe Research, presented the survey findings to the School Board.

Public Comment:

The School Board received public comments from Jessica Shade, Carlo Contavalli, and Brandon Matthews to express support for the parcel tax.

The Board Members reviewed the survey results, discussed the recommended next steps, and asked clarifying questions about the process moving forward. The Board of Trustees expressed support for moving forward to place the parcel tax on the June 2026 ballot.

2. Discussion of School Assignments and Committee Assignments for Board Members for the 2025–26 School Year

The School Board discussed the school and committee assignments for the 2025-26 school year.
